

DE JURE

JAARGANG 48 2015 VOLUME 2

INHOUDSOPGAWE CONTENTS

Artikels/Articles

- The requirements for validity and proprietary consequences of monogamous and polygynous customary marriages in South Africa: Some observations
Papa IP Maithufi 261
- Section 71 of the National Health Act: a call for a review of the consent requirement for child participation in health research
Mariana Buchner-Eveleigh
Fred Vogel 280
- The conservation status of the Wedge-tailed Eagle in Australian law and thoughts on the value of early legal intervention in the conservation of a species
Johann Knobel 293
- Clinical legal education: determining the mission and focus of a university law clinic and required outcomes, skills & values
M A (Riëtte) Du Plessis 312
- Responsible unionism during collective bargaining and industrial action: Are we ready yet?
Monray Marsellus Botha 328
- The South African International Co-operation in Criminal Matters Act and the issue of evidence
Jamil Ddamulira Mujuzi 351
- What is wrong with modern unjustified enrichment law in South Africa?
Jan-Louis Serfontein 388
- Angels and demons, innocents and penitents: An analysis of different “characters” within the penal discourse of apartheid South Africa 1980 to 1984 – Part Two
Stephen Allister Peté 411

Aantekeninge/Notes

- Trade mark law: Can an unregistered mark be protected prior to the acquisition of a reputation?
W Alberts 430
- Immigration and the right to respect for family life in the European context: A reflection on the states’ positive obligations and possible lessons for South Africa
A van der Linde 438

Onlangse regspraak/Recent case law

Maccsand v City of Cape Town, Minister for Water Affairs and Environment, MEC for Local Government, Environmental Affairs and Development Planning, Western Cape Province, Minister for Rural Development and Land Reform, and Minister for Mineral Resources
2012 4 SA 181 (CC)
B Bekink
C Botha.....456

RH v DE 2014 6 SA 436 (SCA)
E Zitzke467

Revisiting some aspects of the decisions in FMBN V NDIC
(1999) 2 NWLR
C Chiwete480